EASTER LILIES

Do you have someone in your life that you would like to remember on Easter Sunday? It may be someone you loved has passed away, or a good friend that you would like to keep in touch with, a family member that may be going through some tough times, or someone in your life that you care about and would like to tell them.

Easter is the perfect time for doing this. It is a time for renewal. Gone (for now) are the days of Lent and ahead lies endless possibilities. Every year we have Easter Lilies that are displayed around the church. If you would like to contribute to our Easter Lily fund, envelopes are available in the vestibules. This is a nice way to remember someone special in your life, donation forms can also be found in the Parish Office.

Reflection.....

- Change takes time, often an entire season--like Lent.
- Grace is God's life within us. Lent is a proactive time to seek and unleash God's grace, as one Body.
- Light and darkness cannot coexist. Grace extinguishes darkness. Seek grace. Seek light.
- If change wasn't a challenge, more people would be open to it.
- Grace is active.

Fourth Sunday of Lent

God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

John 3:17

THE DIGNITY OF THE HOMELESS

The parking lot didn't look so bad at first. Then, I walked across it to an open door. The man inside didn't look so bad either until I stepped into the semi darkness. As my eyes adjusted the smell hit me first. What I saw was worse than any experience I had had in third world gettos: rotting food, broken plumbing (read non-existent), and piles of unrecognizable sludge everywhere. The man turned out to be Russian, "Russian," he said. "You look..." as he led me the five steps to the bathroom. "TV, radio, no work...no work...long time." The shock was almost unbearable. This was my own country. What was worse, I could see a young mom with kids out of the corner of my eye in the next door motel room.

I think about that experience today especially as I plan dinner tonight and the meals we will serve tomorrow for brunch after mass. I can cook on a stove, place food in the frig, turn on the TV to watch a ballgame, and lock the front door. We have the key to the house, car, church, office, our children's houses, etc. So many places we belong, with a key to show it. And for all of us, we have an indoor bathroom that we can access every night. But this Russian man, under those extremely stressful conditions, the mom next door, is it possible that wrong decisions are made a lot and sometimes decisions that have terrible consequences for themselves and their families? I wonder if this should be a motivation to act and act decisively on many fronts: with personal acts of kindness, as a parish community, and politically for the homeless and indigent.

We are all God's people and deserve dignity...every day.

Bishop John Steinbock Homeless Advocacy Committee

GOD'S MERCY

Today's reading from the second book of Chronicles contains a sort of "mini-history" of Israel. It highlights God's mercies in choosing Cyrus the Persian to be an instrument of deliverance when the people were in captivity in Babylon. Despite their sinfulness and the deserved punishment they were undergoing, God's mercy was lavished on the people in the form of a miraculous act of liberation.

The Letter to the Ephesians, in much more theological terms, gives a similar account of a God "who brought us to life with Christ—by grace you have been saved." The author stresses that it was when we were "dead in our transgressions" that God saved us, an act of pure grace. He emphasizes that it is not our own efforts that freed us from sin ("this is not from you"); rather, "it is the gift of God." This, of course, is the heart of the entire Pauline corpus, that salvation comes to us by faith in God's mercy, revealed in the death of Jesus.

For the Ride Home

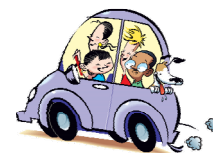

Fourth Sunday of Lent

Scripture

- ...from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David. (1 Samuel 16:13)
- ...you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. (Psalm 23:5)
- You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness... (Ephesians 5:8,9)
- "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" He answered and said, "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" (John 9:35,6)

Reflection

- How are you able to believe in Jesus (in God?) in good times and bad?
- Name your blessings (good and bad) that cause your "cup (and faith) to overflow?"
- What blessings flow out of hardship? out of good times?
- How do you live as a "child of light?"
- "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in Him?" What is your answer?

When we pray we should occasionally cup our hands and hold them open before God. This gesture represents the openness of a heart ready to be trusted and filled by God's loving presence. Identifying with the humble and the poor Jesus, Francis opened His hands and heart. He became a beggar like the ones he saw along the wayside, and trusted completely in divine providence.

Please avoid parking in the marked red zones which are reserved for emergency response teams. We have encountered and been notified by emergency personnel of past and potential problems for emergency access every day of the week.

The areas of concern are:

- In front of the parish office.
- Areas between marked parking stalls.
- Driveways and marked pedestrian zones.
- Clergy area on the south end of the Parish Office.

Note: Overflow parking is available on the school grounds for the Sunday morning Masses.

If you are in a marked red zone, your vehicle can be cited and towed if emergency personnel so deem. This is an expensive fine that can be avoided. Thank you for your consideration and concern for others.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En Latinoamérica, como en muchas partes del mundo, hay una horrible e impresionante pobreza. Enfrentado con la miseria humana, el cristiano puede responder con resignación “Yo no soy nadie, ¿qué puedo hacer yo? Nada.” o puede responder con obras de caridad ayudando uno por uno a los pobres y necesitados. Esta virtud, es el pilar más importante de la conversión. Porque en ella imitamos a Jesucristo que vino no a condenar al mundo sino a salvarlo. Sin la caridad nuestros ayunos son dietas y nuestras oraciones son palabras necias. La caridad es una virtud cristiana, porque Dios es el mejor ejemplo de lo que es la caridad. La caridad no es limosna, es amor y justicia, es salud y salvación; es cumplir con el mandamiento de amarnos los unos a los otros en un mundo donde la mayoría son pobres y desamparados. La caridad es dar al necesitado algo que uno aun necesite, es obrar por cambios sociales que promuevan la dignidad humana y el bienestar económico de todos. La caridad es amor y Dios es amor; vivamos en ese amor. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos □ Glz,
