Ministry Profile – Love and Service

When we think of someone with a heart for service in our parish community, Sister Flor is first on the list. For over 50 years, Sister Flor has served our Lord and His Church with selfless devotion.

Since 1999, we have been fortunate to have Sister Flor with us at St. Anthony. With her knack for floral design and decor, she magically transforms our Church every week and for every annual Catholic feasts to make it look even more magnificent. Whether it is Corpus Christi, Lent, Easter, or Christmas, Sister Flor makes our church look absolutely beautiful.

If you have been caught by Sister after Mass for one thing or another, consider yourself lucky. Sister Flor is the little Angel who started our senior ministry, the Silver Angels. Many Boutiques and craft projects later, we can say we are all truly blessed by her presence. Sister is a shining example for all of us of how one person's time and talent given freely to our parish can benefit the entire community.

We love you, Sister Flor!

ALL SAINTS REFLECTION BY FATHER TOM

To visit the great National Parks of America is an unforgettable experience. But to explore one of them is better still. There you will find carefully laid out trails for hikers and walkers. On those trails you will find lots of markers. In difficult uphill or downhill parts you will find steps cut out in the rocks. In marshy places you will find stepping-stones laid out. And in dangerous parts you will see warning signs posted.

Thanks to these well-made and well-worn trails, even amateurs can make their way safely through deep forest and rugged mountain terrain. As you travel these trails you marvel at the hard work that went into the making of them. And one thing becomes abundantly clear: without those trails the ordinary hiker would be completely lost.

The saints have done something similar for us. They have laid out paths for us. They have put down markers on those paths. They have travelled the way ahead of us, a great host of them. They have shown us what ordinary human beings like us can achieve when they avail of the grace of God. They have set us an example of determination, dedication, and sacrifice.

Christians have always turned to the example of the saints. Some saints went straight to the goal. Others fell, stumbled, blundered, before finally getting it right. But all have expanded the possibilities of human love and courage.

Such examples are not confined to the roll of official saints. All around us, even in our own times, there are men and women whose stories guide us on our journey – people in whom the two great commandments, love of God and love of neighbor, have been joined to an extraordinary degree.

We draw encouragement and inspiration from these men and women who have gone before us and blazed a trail for us. Each one has made the path that bit easier for the rest of us. And when we experience weariness and a sense of failure and futility, it's as if they are saying to us, "We are with you. Don't give up."

However, there is a tendency to put the saints on such an exalted pedestal that we feel justified in excusing ourselves from imitating them. In this case, devotion to the saints becomes more of a hindrance than a help.

The saints serve as models for us precisely because they were sinners like us. They are reminders to us of what life is about. They inspire us, guide us, encourage us and give us hope. And, of course, they also intercede for us.

But they can't do it in our place. Nor will they provide us with shortcuts and ways of evading the hard slog and the narrow road. We must not expect others to do for us what we cannot discipline ourselves to do. We ourselves have to walk the path. We have to make the journey. The saints help us to dare that journey.

Parish Ministry Guide –

Christ said, "I have come to serve, not to be served."

The prayers during the Mass invite us to offer our prayers and gifts to the Lord. Liturgical Ministry calls the faithful to be part of the Mass. We all feel unworthy to serve, just as Christ's disciples, who were fishermen before Christ called them. Is Christ calling you?

FORGIVENESS

Reflection on Luke 19:1-10

We hear that Zacchaeus is “seeking to see Jesus,” and discover that Jesus, with even more ardor, is seeking Zacchaeus, to embrace him and dine with him. What a wonder is God’s patience with us sinners as we figure out how to respond to His love and mercy! It is even more of a wonder to know that God uses this sinner (me), as He did Zacchaeus, to teach others about forgiveness.

Sometimes we aren’t so happy to see people whose sins are different from ours dining at the same table of the Lord with us. But Jesus, the source of love, the wellspring of mercy, the hope of sinners, is seeking each and every human person, urging all of human history toward a perfect union with our Creator. In Jesus, God is gathering up the fragments, seeking out the lost, that nothing and no one may be wasted.

Maybe we each have to see ourselves as Zacchaeus, and each see ourselves as the self-righteous who do not want a sinner near us, and each see ourselves as Christ, with an embrace wide enough to accept anyone looking for the Lord.

PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SOULS

Merciful Father, hear our prayer and console us. As we renew our faith in Your Son, whom You raised from the dead, strengthen our hope that all our departed brothers and sisters will share in His Resurrection, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

(Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception of the B.V.M.)

EL PERDÓN

Reflexión sobre Lucas 19:1-10

Oímos que Zaqueo "busca ver a Jesús," y descubrimos que Jesús, con más ardor aún, busca a Zaqueo, para abrazarlo y cenar con él. ¡Qué maravilla es la paciencia de Dios con nosotros, los pecadores, mientras descubrimos cómo responder a su amor y misericordia! Es aún más maravilloso saber que Dios utiliza a este pecador (yo), como lo hizo con Zaqueo, para enseñar a otros sobre el perdón.

A veces no nos agrada ver a personas cuyos pecados son diferentes a los nuestros cenando en la misma mesa del Señor con nosotros. Pero Jesús, la fuente del amor, el manantial de la misericordia, la esperanza de los pecadores, busca a todos y cada uno de los seres humanos, impulsando toda la historia humana hacia una unión perfecta con nuestro Creador. En Jesús, Dios está recogiendo los fragmentos, buscando a los perdidos, para que nada ni nadie se desperdicie.

Tal vez cada uno de nosotros tenga que verse a sí mismo como Zaqueo, y cada uno verse a sí mismo como el santurrón que no quiere a un pecador cerca de él, y cada uno verse a sí mismo como Cristo, con un abrazo lo suficientemente amplio como para aceptar a cualquiera que busque al Señor.

ORACIÓN POR LAS ALMAS SANTAS

Padre misericordioso, escucha nuestra oración y consuélanos.

Mientras renovamos nuestra fe en tu Hijo, a quien resucitaste de entre los muertos, fortalece nuestra esperanza de que todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas difuntos participen en su resurrección, que que vive y reina contigo y con el Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos. Concédeles, Señor, el descanso eterno y haz que la luz perpetua luz perpetua sobre ellos. Que descansen en paz. Amén.

HELP FOR STRUGGLING MARRIAGES

Thinking about separation or divorce? Is your marriage or that of a relative or friend heading for divorce? Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) is designed to help troubled marriages regain their health. It helps spouses uncover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. The program is highly successful in saving hurting marriages, even bringing reconciliation to couples who have already separated or divorced. The next English weekend in Fresno will be held November 11-13, 2022. For confidential information or to register, please call us at 559-862-6765.

All Souls Envelopes can be found in the bulletin racks at all church entrances. Please complete the back with the names of the decedents and place in the offertory basket at Mass. Thank you.
